The Fable of Demetius Bartholemew James III Jr.

By Thomas Schrank

Demetrius was a simple man, living outside Columbia, working as a tech guru for the university of South Carolina. He was minding his own business on his day off, when suddenly….

A maniac convict broke into his house and held him at gunpoint. Demetrius was terrified and asked the degenerate what he wanted. The gunman said, "I need you to show me how to get serious gains in the gym." Demetrius was befuddled by the man request, but was willing to do anything if it meant not getting shot.

Demetrius weighed his options, but then realized that there was only one option. He had to take the crazed man to the Strom center. He said to the man, "Wait, what if there's too many people at the Strom center and we can't get a hold of any machines. I can't show you a proper workout if there's too many college kids." The criminal then responded….
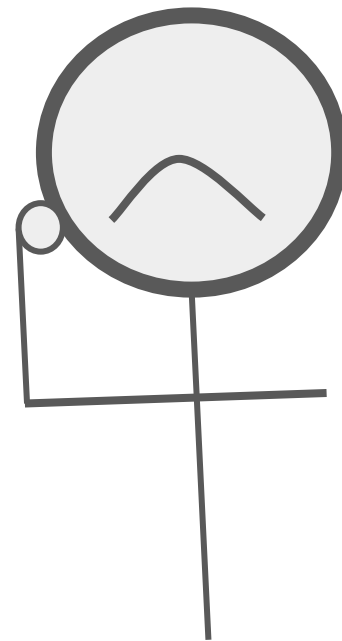

"There's where I have the perfect solution! The Strom center tracking app will tell you what the wait is at the Strom center! It'll tell you the average time spent on the machines there and if there's machines/basketball courts available!" Demetrius was ecstatic. "No way! It tells you all of those things on one app? How much is it?" The criminal answered, "There's the best part, nothing. The app is completely free!"
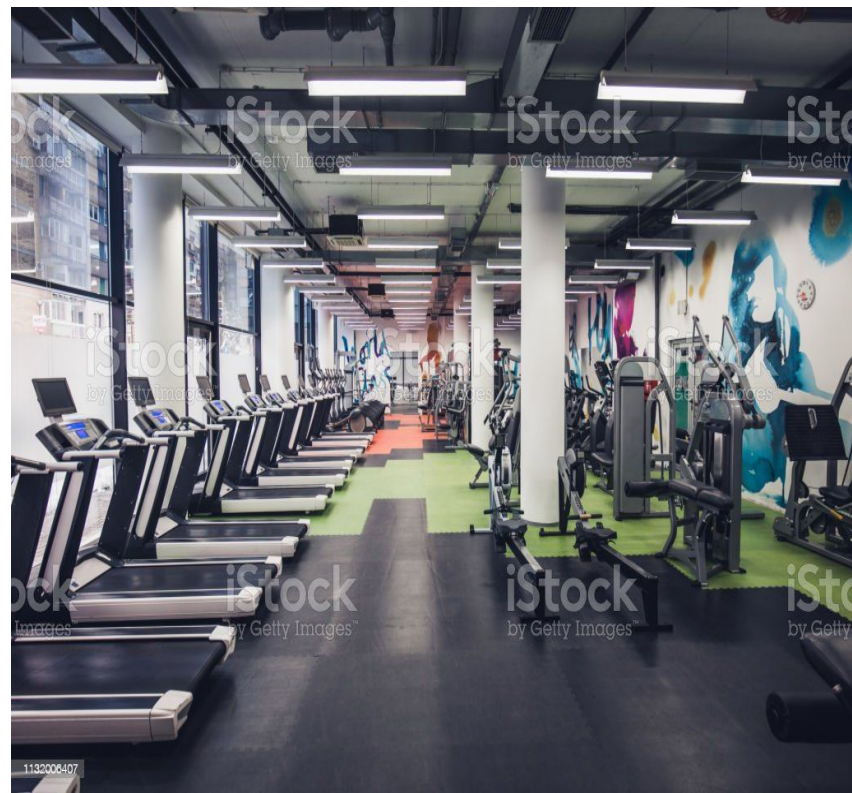

"Well what a relief!" Demetrius said. "Well what are we waiting for! Let's get over there we're wasting precious time!" They went to the Strom center after using the app to determine there was not too many people there. They had a great workout and Demetrius lived happily ever after. The convict was found and arrested 3 hours later.
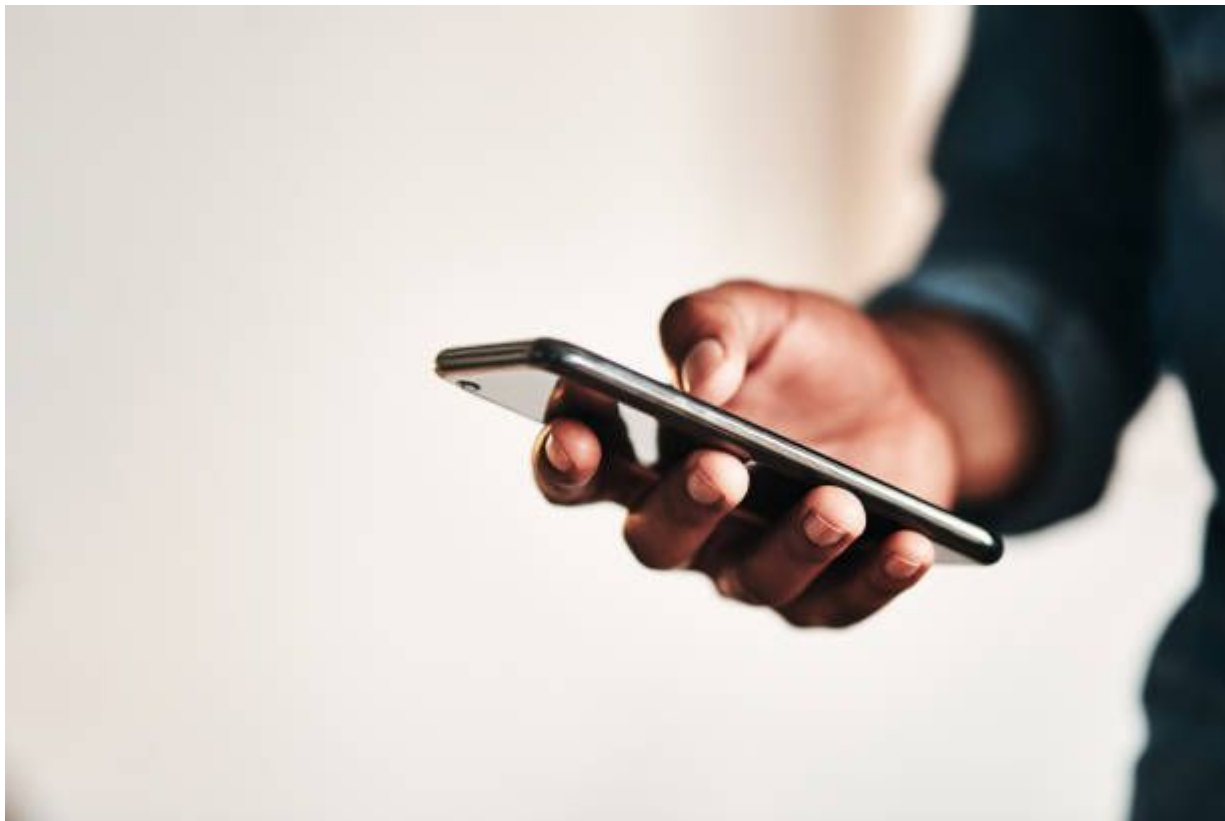

Chad Brosman gets ladies

Jackie Bothe

Poor Chad's working out- but no girls are there to see him.

Before our app he had no idea when there would be people at the gym or not.

But now he knows exactly when theres enough people for him to show his swole with our app.

"Thank you unnamed campus gym app!"

"Finally the attention i deserve!"

Annoying Polar Bears

Jerico Arambulo

Polar bears are always at strom

Mary looks at all the rooms and polar bears are everywhere. Before she downloaded the app she couldn't work out.

After finding the on campus gym app she finally finds out what time the polar bears leave.

Mary can now workout freely without polar bears.

A Day In The Life of Oliver Otis

By Jordan Wood

Oliver likes to wake up at precisely 6:45 every morning and make a healthy breakfast

After eating his delicious breakfast, Oliver loves to check out our app to see how packed Strom will be.

On the way to the gym, Oliver listens to Codeine Crazy by Future on repeat, to get into the right mentality of course.

Just to be extra safe, Oliver checks the app again to hopefully see that the gym doesn't have a lot of people. After checking, he sees there are some people there, hopefully some beautiful women.

Oliver arrives and immediately heads for the bench press machine. He can't wait to tell everyone that he benched 450!

After his epic workout, all the ladies come running up to Oliver. Oliver is happy and it is all because of the Strom Gym Tracking App!
